Industrial Applied Data Science

18-19 October 2018 – Lugano – Palazzo dei congressi

www.ftal-conference.net

The aim of the FTAL Conference is to bring together researchers, outstanding Master students in engineering and life sciences from Swiss Universities of Applied Sciences, and leading Swiss companies for an open exchange on the exciting subject of Industrial Applied Data Science. The conference will take place in Lugano and will host more than 300 participants: students, researchers and industry partners.

About FTAL

FTAL, the Association of Swiss Schools of Engineering, Architecture and Life Sciences, is organising a scientific conference on the growing influence of Data Science on many aspects of our lives. The first joint research event is taking place in Lugano and being organised by all of the Universities of Applied Sciences of Switzerland. It will focus on industrial applied research outcomes in this highly dynamic field.
